ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

As stated during the teleconference held earlier today:

- The deadline for fact discovery is extended to January 31, 2023, and the deadline for expert discovery is extended to March 31, 2023. These are firm deadlines and no further extensions will be granted.
- Defendants' motion for summary judgment and Daubert motion(s) are due thirty days after the close of expert discovery.
- If Plaintiff intends to cross-move for summary judgment, the parties are directed to confer and submit a joint letter proposing a briefing schedule for the motions and cross-motions, and proposing page limits if the parties require more than 25 pages for the opening brief and opposition and 10 pages for the reply.
- If Plaintiff does not intend to cross-move, Plaintiff's opposition will be due thirty days after Defendants' motions. Defendants' reply will be due two weeks thereafter.
- By separate Order today, the Court will refer the parties to the Court-annexed Mediation Program. The parties are directed to attend mediation before the close of expert discovery on March 31.

SO ORDERED.
